ADVOCACY

The role of an elected leader is in large part being a cheerleader for the City of Dallas and the things that make our city special. Dallas mayors such as Annette Strauss and Mike Rawlings, and former Councilmember Veletta Lill understood the importance of the arts to the city's economic development, tourism, vibrancy, cultural brand and quality of life. (See attached one-pager.) They made the arts a centerpiece of their agenda and legacy.

QUESTION: What role do you envision for yourself as an elected Dallas leader when it comes to the arts? Where will arts and culture fit within your priorities? And what are the ways you would advocate for the arts in and out of Dallas?

I am a strong advocate for the arts. The Arts District has become a destination for visitors and locals and, in turn, has created income for other downtown businesses. I will continue to urge Visit Dallas to include venues in the Arts District in its presentation to potential visitors to Dallas.

EQUITY

The 2018 Dallas Cultural Plan – just approved unanimously by the City Council – placed Equity at the top of priorities for the arts. This includes equity in funding, providing cultural experiences in underserved parts of our city, supporting both the new and emerging arts community as well as our historic institutions. Additional resources will be required to reach this goal.

QUESTION: Given the many needs of the city, how will you support the goal of sustaining and growing the City's current investment in the arts, and ensure the Cultural Plan does not gather dust on the shelf?

Achieving equity in current arts funding is very difficult because of the legacy commitments to long established arts and cultural organizations. I support bond financing for arts and cultural projects and growing the tax base to create additional revenue to fund projects in Southern Dallas. District 8 is an underserved District which I represent.

HOTEL OCCUPANCY TAX

To help fund its implementation, the Cultural Plan calls for an increase in the arts portion of the City's Hotel Occupancy Tax (HOT) to align with peer cities. HOT funds are paid by tourists, not Dallas taxpayers. Currently, 2.6% is dedicated to the arts (about $1.6M.) Houston is 19%, San Antonio is 11%, Austin is 15%.

QUESTION: Would you support a significant increase of the arts portion of the HOT to create and sustain a major cultural tourism marketing program, repairs and maintenance of neglected cultural venues, and increased support for arts programs that add to the cultural vibrancy and attractiveness of Dallas as a destination?

Yes, I strongly support the Cultural Plan request for an increase in the Hotel Occupancy Tax to increase funding to arts and cultural organizations.

ARTS IN YOUR DISTRICT

Name three areas of your council district where you think arts and cultural programs and experiences are most needed and would be welcomed the most.

There are areas in District 8 where arts and cultural programs and experiences are most needed.

- a. Hidden Valley/Runyon Springs
- b. Highland Hills
- c. Carter Square
