

The Dallas Area Cultural Advocacy Coalition (DACAC) is a grassroots organization of members representing Dallas-area arts and cultural organizations. Established in 2007 as a Texas Nonprofit Corporation, this active coalition mobilizes support for issues of importance to arts and cultural groups, arts patrons, and individual artists in the greater Dallas area.

Membership is open to the public. Individuals and organizations of the arts and culture community are especially encouraged to join. Please fill out this form with as much information as you can provide. Thank you for your support of the arts in Dallas. #DallasNeedstheArts
